

Last minute changes in the program ERMAS 2016

AUGUST 2

In Session E3: Angela Filip (Babeş-Bolyai University, RO) will present the paper “Herding behavior in CEE stock markets under asymmetric conditions: a quantile regression analysis” instead of Miruna Pochea (they are coauthors)

The following presentation is cancelled:

In Session E2: Francesco Magris (University “François Rabelais” of Tours, FR): “Decreasing Transaction Costs and Endogenous Fluctuations in a Monetary Model” (with Antoine Le Riche)

AUGUST 3

The following presentation is cancelled:

In Session F2: Iuliana Tomuleasa (University of Auvergne, FR and Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, RO): “ The role of the financial sector in quantitative easing decisions: evidence from the UK” (with Dionisis Philippas and Stefanos Papadamou)

Note: Last minute changes in the conference program will be announced on the conference website.